

THE BLACKWHITECOLORFUL

BIOGRAPHY

We are navigators, traveling through the darkest night, diving into the deepest oceans. What binds us is unity, what drives us is urgency and this time we seek clarity. THE BLACKWHITECOLORFUL describe this quest from departure to arrival, from beginning to end, from our homes to the farthest outposts. It's an introspective gaze using outward-looking tools. With the aid of alternative rock with borrowings from post-rock and post-hardcore, the quintet consisting of Sascha [voc/git], Michael [git], Jonas [b], Tim [synth] and Alex [dr], set out to write this itinerary.

Through still and storm, we navigate.

»Bigger, higher, further is the motto [...]. Ambitious crossover of postpunk, emo, posthardcore and postrock«
– eclipsed (10/2023)

»Here someone has really written an album with variety and dramaturgy. [...] between tracks by Northlane, Sleep Token [and] 30 Seconds To Mars«
– Rockhard (Vol. 436)

»EDM and heavy riffs, euphoria and (brief) pause [...]. Global format!«
– Sonic Seducer

»Despite complex ideas and all kinds of sound experiments with synthesizers, programmed beats, interludes and orchestral passages, singer Sascha Joseph's journey always leads to an intense, anthemic and emotional chorus, anthemic and emotional chorus - highly catchy.«
– Visions (03/2020)
